

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

The Charleston Mercury says that there is a prospect of the early release of Lieut. J. C. Braine, of the late Confederate navy, who has been, since the close of the war, and is now, a prisoner in Port Delaware. Lieut. Braine has never had a trial, and it is understood that he will be released upon parole, and when his case is called a nol. pros. will be moved by the District Attorney of the district in which he may be indicted. All that is necessary now to effect his restoration to liberty is the amount which will be required to pay the expenses of a process to satisfy the forms of the law.

Mrs. Helen Smith, who lives in Oxford Place, Boston, was seized by a man while walking in Harrison avenue, on Sunday night, who blindfolded her and then cut her throat, inflicting a probably fatal wound. The woman thinks it was her husband, with whom she had not been living for some time.

Mr. S. Beach, of the New York Sun, and one of the Quaker City excursionists, has donated three hundred pounds sterling to send back to the U. S., the Jaffa colonists, who had reached Alexandria, Egypt, in destitution. The colonists were forthwith forwarded via Liverpool, on the 5th instant.

The treaty made by the Indian Commissioners with the Kiowa and Comanche tribes on the 21st instant, gives them about six thousand square miles, embracing three and a half million acres. This grant embraces the southwestern corner of the present Indian Territory, with a fraction from Texas.

A special from Chicago, says that a movement is on foot in Iowa to bring out Senator Harlan for the Presidency. The Davenport Gazette and Muscatine Journal are said to be for him. [This is "immense aid and assistance" to begin with!]

O. C. Adams, mail agent between Boston and Portland, was shot at last night in one of the principal streets of Saco, Maine, by a ruffian, who then attacked him with the butt end of his pistol, inflicting several wounds before being frightened away.

The sub-committee of the House Committee on Elections have concluded their investigations into the loyalty of the Kentucky Congressmen elect. They will recommend the immediate admission of Mr. Knott, whose loyalty was unquestioned.

The British Government having declined to release Colonel Warren and Nagle, who claim to be American citizens, the Secretary of State, by direction of the President, has authorized the employment of counsel to aid in their defence.

The Charleston (S. C.) News which has heretofore supported the reconstruction acts of Congress, comes out in its issue of yesterday, against them, and advises the people of South Carolina not to vote on the question of a State convention.

Francis Thomas's sub-committee of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, engaged in the investigation of Maryland affairs, adjourned yesterday until the 13th of November.

Complete official returns show the Ohio Legislature to stand thus: Senate, 13 Radicals, and 19 Democrats; House, 49 Radicals and 56 Democrats, showing seven Democratic majority on joint ballot.

The Norwich Advertiser has an article warmly urging the claims of Gov. James F. English for the Presidency [Bring them all out at once, and be done with it!]

THE SCANDALOUS EXPOSURE.—The following article is copied in various journals from the Macabre Press, a western Radical journal, edited by Mr. Donn Platt, who it is said, was intimate at the President's House, in Washington, during Mr. Lincoln's administration: "It was known to the wide circle that business or social life brought in contact with the Executive Mansion, that its interior was as gross, vulgar, and corrupt as it was possible for any house to be and retain even a semblance of respectability. The startled public now reads its history in a forty-thousand dollar wardrobe, made up of shawls, lace, and diamonds—the gifts of 'dear friends'—how 'dear,' the poor public is now realizing in the millions that shameless thieves have stolen and are yet stealing. How was it possible that these gifts from 'dear friends' were paid for in lucrative offices, given under the signature of Abraham Lincoln, without that shrewd man being aware of the infamous character of the official, and the nature of the bargain that brought him into office? This is a surmise only, but Thurlow Weed seems determined to bring the business home to the late President.

Mr. Weed might have added the fact that this refusal to approve of a bare-faced swindle cost Mr. Smith his seat in the Cabinet—Mr. Lincoln, so far sympathizing with his wife in the extraordinary transaction. Mr. Lincoln was not only as unprincipled and avaricious as the late slave indicators, but she was and is exceedingly ignorant and stupid; and yet how are we to account for the control she exercised over the domestic life and public affairs of the late President. We remember how pained the loyal hearts of the Union were to learn that in the darkest hour of our national peril, when our army was being robbed by dishonesty, and our treasury was being robbed by dishonesty, while the artillery of the enemy echoed through the very halls of the Capitol, a dancing, drinking entertainment, or ball, was given at the White House. We turn away from the inner life of this White House, that was indeed a whitened sepulchre, in sorrowing disgust, and feel ashamed through all our being that the curtain was ever lifted to let light in on its loathsome contents."

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Hon. John H. Hubbard, of Connecticut, has purchased the house that was to have been occupied by Senator Sumner this winter.

The city was yesterday thronged with persons of the "genus pug," who were in waiting to attend the fight between Kelly and Parkinson. These worthies and their friends have not been dejected by the large attendance at the battle, as the principals and their friends, to the number of about twenty-five, took the mail boat for Aquia Creek at 7 o'clock last night, and the fight will take place in that vicinity, instead of near this city, as was supposed.

The announcement of this change in the programme was received last night by the roughs with extreme disgust.

Notwithstanding the difficulty experienced by the contractor for taking down the old penitentiary building in obtaining hands, he has commenced the work, but has less than a dozen men employed, who have thus far taken up the pavements, and are now at work on the east wall of the main south yard.

Recently the authorities at the Arsenal have erected head-boards over the trench in which the bodies of Mrs. Surratt, Payne, Booth, Herold, &c., are buried, bearing the names, respectively, of the persons buried.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Gen. Parker, who surveyed the Dismal Swamp Canal, has made his report to the Secretary of the Treasury. He estimates the cost to put the work in good condition at $350,000, and thinks only a private corporation could profitably manage the improvement. He advises against any further expenditure by the government.

It is stated that game of all kinds was never more abundant in the neighborhood of Petersburg section, than it is this season. Deer rove the fields and woods almost within sight of the city, while the neighboring swamps are alive with wild turkeys. Old hares, squirrels and partridges are to be found in great numbers.

Rev. J. L. M. Curry, late president of Howard College, Ala., has declined the recent call extended to him by the Freeman street Baptist Church, Norfolk, and has been elected Professor of History and English Literature in the Richmond College.

As the majority for the radical ticket in Richmond was but 407, if Mr. Gilmer's showing of 500 manufactured votes, were to avail anything, it alone would defeat that ticket.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The Washington Agricultural Fair which opened to-day, on the ground of the National Race Course, near Giesboro, was seriously inconvenienced by the prevailing bad weather. The entries for thoroughbred and agricultural implements have been extended until the 6th proximo. Sales of stock and agricultural implements commence on the 8th of November. Owners can remove them before the 5th if they do not propose to sell them.

Mr. Clement Hill, of Prince George's county, will have thirty head of stock at the grounds tomorrow. The horses Gen. Butler, Longless, and Capt. Magowan have arrived. Silas Rich is already here. The following horses in charge of Mr. J. P. Heise have also arrived, and are temporarily at Price's livery stable, in Washington, viz: Mountain Maid, Lizzie Littlefield, Gunsey, and Mary, all Pennsylvania horses; Mary Queen, of California; Frank Allen, brown stallion, (no name,) and Panny, New Jersey horse; and Polly Ann, a Chicago mare.

EFFECTS OF THE LATE STORM ON THE RIO GRANDE.—The N. O. Pineyuan has the following advice, which confirm the destructive effects of the late storm upon the Rio Grande.

El Correo says the hurricane was the most terrible in the memory of man on this frontier. A personal bombardment for a year could not have done as much damage as happened from this one night's storm. Twenty-six persons were killed in Matamoros. Ten killed and twenty-one wounded in Brownsville. At Brazos, as far as known, twelve persons perished.

Only two houses were left at Clarksville, and none at Bayland. At the latter place the loss of life is not known. Ninety of the inhabitants escaped by going on board a vessel, which rode out the storm. The rest must have perished.

The colored soldiers and their officers acted badly, not only refusing all assistance to the struggling and suffering families, but refused to the sheltered part of the island, and the soldiers returned the next day to rob the wrecked goods under the remains of the warehouses and dwellings. One of them shot and killed a citizen who detected him in robbing. Their officers said they could do nothing to check their brigandage.

In Matamoros fifteen hundred houses and huts were blown down.

The greatest distress and want prevails at all points, and appeals have been made for relief. Out of seven steamers, only two can be repaired.

FOREIGN NEWS.—The dispatches by the cable up to the 27th, say that Garibaldi has issued a proclamation calling upon the Italians to march upon Rome—that he has crossed the Roman frontier with 4,000 men—and that the French fleet of iron clads loaded with troops, has left Toulon for the scene of the disturbances.

BERKELEY CIRCUIT COURT.—We extract the following from the proceedings of the Circuit Court of Berkeley, in "West Virginia."

"C. J. Daise vs. Joseph Pennybacker and Edward H. McDonald. War trespass, to recover the value of the store goods of complainant, seized for the use of the Confederate troops. Dismissed as to Pennybacker. No defence filed by the defendant, Col. McDonald, he being a non-resident of the State, and unwilling to concede by a plea of the general issue, the jurisdiction of the Court. Jury sworn to execute writ of inquiry of damages. Mr. Faulkner asked permission, without appearing as counsel in case, to cross-examine the witnesses, but the Court declined to permit him to do so, unless he appeared as counsel for the defendant, which he said he did not feel at liberty to do. Verdict for the plaintiff, $1,250, with interest from July 8, 1863. Blackburn & Halteman for the plaintiff."

COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, October 29.—The market this morning was quiet, the offerings on 'Change being very light, in consequence of the delay in the arrival of the freight trains on the O. A. & M. R. R. The attendance was slim and but few sales reported. Flour is quiet and unchanged. Wheat at about yesterday's quotations, but somewhat firmer. One lot of prime red was offered at 275, but not taken. Corn less active and lower. We quote white and mixed at 130. Sales of Rye at 140 and 145, with a fair demand. There is a fair enquiry for Oats, with sales at 63. Buckwheat brought 140.

NEW YORK MARKET, October 28.—Flour 140 to 150. Wheat quiet and firm. Corn lower. Oats dropping. Pork heavy and lower; mess $21 1/2. Lard dull. Cotton quiet at 20 1/2 for middling uplands. Freights firm.

BALTIMORE MARKET, October 28.—Transactions in Flour continued limited, the only sale of importance reported this morning being one of 300 lbs City Mills Standard. Extras at $11 per bbl. There was some inquiry from shippers, and the market generally was firm in tone.

Receipts of Grain were larger this morning than they have been for some time past, the offerings comprising some 22,000 bushels Wheat, 20,000 bushels Corn, 15,000 bushels Oats, and 500 bushels Rye. Wheat was active and firm, and prices show a further advance of 5c per bushel. Corn was also in good demand, nearly the whole 20,000 bushels offered being sold; white ranged from 135 to 140 for old, and 115 to 120 for new; and Oats ranged from 68 to 75, the bulk of the receipts being sold at 72 1/2.

BASE BALL—A WORD TO PARENTS.—All over town, and, indeed, all over the country, we hear people complaining of the evils arising from excessive base ball playing, and, occasionally, these complaints, in various forms, find their way into the newspapers. Loss of time, inattention to business or study, bodily injuries and damage to clothing, are all dwelt upon with various degrees of bitterness, and it seems that the New York merchants have undertaken to stop, if possible, the betting on match games, which threatens to lead to seriously bad results.

Amid all these objections to the game, I have been very much astonished at not having seen, what I, and many other careful observers of the habits of our youth, have long considered the great evil of base ball playing, even alluded to: I refer to its associations.

The great object in base ball is to get a win that can beat any other win; and to this end, if a boy, or young man, is a good pitcher, catcher, or player of any sort, he can obtain a welcome admission into most clubs, by his character, his manners, his conduct what they may; pitching and catching, batting and running, are the only things needful; bad language, rowdiness, obscenity, and worthlessness, generally, are not thought of as objections. Indeed, as the more practice one has, the better he can play, and as the less useful occupation one has, the more time he has to practice, it is easy to see that those who are of the least use in the community, and are more likely to have evil habits than the busy and industrious, are often the best at base ball, and are, therefore, the most cordially welcomed into base ball clubs.

Now, the associations of boys and young men of good character, with persons of that stamp, cannot fail to produce bad effects, especially if, as is often, perhaps most generally—the case, (even with boys from 12 to 15,) there is a club room, and night meetings, where all the members are thrown into intimate companionship. Many boys are now being led into the road to ruin from this cause, whose parents are unsuspecting and unwatchful as the occupants of Eden when the serpent entered it. Loss of time, inattention to business or to study, bodily injuries—all can be repaired, but the mind of the boy, poisoned by bad language, and acquainted with sin, can never more recover the last innocence, which made him, and all about him, happy.

It would be useless to call attention to an evil, without pointing out a remedy; this happily, is in every man's hands. Let every father, whose son belongs to a base ball club, insist on knowing who are his members—all its members; where it meets and when; and if he finds on its roll any whom he does not know, let him take the trouble to enquire, not of his son, but of interested and well informed persons, their character and habits, just as he would do with respect to those whom might wish to visit his house; let him enquire who frequents the club room, and what is done there, and, above all, if his sons are not boys, let him insist upon it that they shall attend no night meetings of any club; and that if objectionable persons remain in membership, they shall withdraw. This done, and the parental authority judiciously exercised as to when and how long base ball shall be played, and I think the evils generally complained of will disappear, and base ball become an unobjectionable, as it certainly is a healthy recreation, at least for boys.

A FRIEND TO OUTDOOR SPORTS.

It appears from the manifesto of "some" individual in yesterday's Gazette, who signs himself "Conservatives" (as A. Ward would say, we are very curious to know how many there are of him!) that he does not desire to be counted in the proposed harmonizing arrangement, that there is "no occasion for interference, one way or the other." &c., &c.

Now as "Conservatives" seems considerably "set in his ways," and is disposed to "stout it out to the bitter end," we do not propose to argue the matter with him in extenso, but simply remark that if his position was assumed by the "rest of mankind" the world would "go a-wag-wag-wagging," in status quo ad infinitum! Preachers would refuse to preach—teachers to teach, and all fall to "come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty," because they were not instrumental in bringing about the great hubbub in the world's wigwag! But if Conservatives does not wish to harmonize, he need not try to get along without him, but he must remember that when the "day of reckoning" comes he must not expect to cling to the skirts of my coat, for, as that sainted divine, Mowbray once said we will "cut off our tail, and go up in a roundabout, first!"

A REPUBLICAN.

FROM HAVANA.—The demand made upon Cuba by the Spanish Government, for two million dollars has not been complied with, as the treasury is empty. The gas company threatens to stop the supply of gas for lighting the streets of Havana, because the municipality owes them eighty thousand dollars, and refuses to pay. The Government is in arrears for four months' pensions to the widows of officers and soldiers. Decomposed meat, used by negroes for food, has caused a malignant disease to break out among them. There have been twelve cases, seven of which proved fatal.

THE FREEDMEN.—It is stated that at Kendall Green there is much suffering among the Freedmen located there, the Government having ceased to give them rations. The buildings there have been divided into rooms, which are rented at $2 per month, and it is stated in case of a failure to pay, the goods are confiscated by the officer in charge, Maj. Townsend. —Washington Star.

DIED.
In Georgetown, on the 28th instant, Captain WM. MARTIN, in the 64th year of his age, a native of Charles county, Md., but for the last 40 years a resident of Georgetown.

On Saturday, the 26th instant, FANNIE SLAY GIBBER, daughter of Susan M., and the late Robert W. Wheat, aged 15 years. In the death of this young and pious child much remains to console and reconcile the torn and lacerated hearts of the widowed mother and sorrowing friends. After long and complicated suffering, productive of loss of sight and painful emaciation, she gave those true signs of christian character—of patience under affliction—hope in the promises of God, and trust in His salvation. Connecting herself to the Church, while blind to the outward sense, she saw with the eye of faith, a realization of the promises of the Gospel, and committed her young spirit to His guidance; and now reposes in the full enjoyment of "rest to the weary soul."
